WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT NGA MEMBERSHIP

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Associate members shall be firms regularly engaged in manufacturing for sale of food and related products to regular members; firms regularly engaged in supplying services to regular members; and local, state, regional and other associations whose purpose is to serve foodretailers and/or distributors.

WHAT IS THE BILLING CYCLE FOR MEMBERSHIP DUES?

NGA membership is based on a calendar billing cycle for all members (January 1 to December 31).

DUES VERIFICATION

To ensure the accuracy of member dues, NGA may ask members to provide supporting information. All information provided will be kept strictly confidential.

RENEWAL

Invoices for membership dues renewal are sent to all members in mid-September for the next calendar year. Dues invoices are payable January 1. Member benefit information is sent after full payment is received.

PAST DUE TERMS

Members whose dues are not paid after 90 days will be considered past due and all subscriptions and services will be suspended. Membership privileges will be reinstated at any time during the remaining months of the year after the full payment is received. Past due invoices for services rendered will also be cause for suspension, even if membership dues have been paid in full. This includes past due advertising and exhibitor fees. Membership will be reinstated after full payment of outstanding invoice(s). In order to receive discounts on conferences and events, membership dues must be paid in full before the event, or nonmember fees will apply.

TAX DEDUCTION

In accordance with the provisions of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, 77% of NGA membership dues are deductible under Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code as ordinary and necessary trade or business expenses. NGA membership dues are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. NGA estimates that the nondeductible portion of your dues allocable to lobbying is 23%. Campaign contributions are tax deductible as ordinary business expenses, although not as charitable contributions.
